Mr. Edward F. Wagner,
President
The Interchurch Center
297 Fourth Avenue
New York 10, New York

Dear Mr. Wagner:

I just arrived in the office from a trip to Europe and found your letter of 17 September inviting me to march in the procession at the ceremonial laying of the cornerstone of the Interchurch Center on 12 October.

Much as I would like to attend on this historic occasion, I have a previous engagement on that date and therefore must regretfully decline your very kind invitation. Mrs. Dulles also will be unable to attend since she is still in Europe and is not expected back in the country until after the middle of October. However, your thoughtfulness in asking us to the ceremony is indeed appreciated.

Once again, many thanks and kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

The Hon. Allen W. Dulles

Dear Mr. Dulles:

It is my pleasure on behalf of the officers and trustees of The Interchurch Center to invite you to march with us in the processional at the ceremonial laying of the cornerstone of The Center on October 12. President Eisenhower will be present and will participate in the program.

The 300 special guests invited to be in the processional include official representatives of thirty-five Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox communions, presidents and deans of theological seminaries, official representatives from church-related universities and colleges, civic officials and executives of church agencies utilizing space in The Center.

After you have had an opportunity to read the attached summary sheet, together with the formal invitation going to you and Mrs. Dulles separately, a reply will be much appreciated. I truly hope that you and Mrs. Dulles will honor us by your presence on an occasion which I know will be historic and which I hope will provide a real impetus to religious work throughout the country.

Sincerely,

Edmund F. Wagner
